Americans with Disabilities Act

In compliance with The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Public Law 101-336, the Hearing Aid Dispensers Bureau provides "reasonable accommodation" for applicants with disabilities that may affect their ability to take the required examinations. It is the applicant's responsibility to notify the program office of alternative arrangements needed. The Hearing Aid Dispensers Bureau is not required by the ADA to provide special accommodations if we are unaware of your needs. The information and any documentation regarding your disability will be considered strictly confidential and will not be shared with any outside source without your express written permission.

Information Collection and Access

The information in this application is mandatory and is maintained in accordance with the Business & Professions Code, Title 16, Division 2, Chapter 7.5, Section 3500 et seq. Failure to provide all or any part of the requested information will result in the application being rejected as incomplete. Each individual has the right to review the files or records maintained on him/her by this agency subject to the provisions of the Information Practices Act.
